21 YEARS AGO-

FROM OUR EARLY FILES...

Approximately 200 teachers and officers of the Coffee County school system attended the annual institute held in the high school auditorium, when the outline for the year's work was discussed.

The nominating committee composed of Miss Eunora Farris, Miss Alba Folsom, and L. Hunter Garth, named the following officers: R. L. Farris, president; Harvey Locklar, vice-pres.; and two new members on the board of directors were Ned Young, succeeding Earl Smith after the expiration of his term, and Mrs. Jimmie Prestwood, succeedir Mrs. Pauline T. Allen. Miss Farris, J. C. Dixon, and Mr Clements were appointed to investigate expanding library facilities of the county.

The Emergency Aid Life Association, local insurance company, bought bonds totaling $30,000 dollars from the City of Elba.

Henry Clark of Birmingham visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Clark and other relatives.

W. M. Brunson was the guest speaker at the opening exercises of the Pine Level Junior High School when around 350 pupils were present to enroll for the school term. Members of the faculty are E. W. Ellis, Mrs. Ola B. Kendrick, Clem Carpenter, Mrs. Cammie B. Johnson, Miss Mary Catherine Bryan, Miss Claudie Lee Bryan, and Mrs. Voncile J. Nelson. * * * * *

Dorsey Brothers, manufacturers of trailers, vans, skidlers, and other motorized transportation equipment, was among the Alabama firms who shared in national defense contracts and allotments, according to announcements made Friday by the office of government reports. A contract for $3,628 was awarded Dorsey for the construction of trailers for the U. S. Navy. The local firm had a number of government contracts within a year.
